What Will Happen After Falling Maple Orange Occurs (Turns Blue)?

Bryan Mullins The Fox 3 min read · Just now

Before I make any predictions as to what happens after Falling Maple Orange, here are a few details on how this "mass suicide" will take place:

#1. Families will gather together in completely permanent and irreversible panic to not be alive anymore, at the dinner table (where they could've had Christmas Dinner like normal people).

#2. Most of them will either go out with the same method, or each member will choose to go out with a different method entirely.

#3. The smell from such a mass suicide will possibly reach as far south as North Texas…either that or Oklahoma or Kansas!

#4. Canada will no longer be a country anymore and may become fresh territory to be taken advantage of by upcoming President Vance by sometime in 2027 (come January 20th), taking advantage of more oil, financial resources, more nuclear energy, and more ways to push through even further yet far more dystopian mass surveillance. And political dissent being free will become a thing of the past because of what happened.

And most importantly, #5. We'll enter The Post-Traditional-Christmas-Dinner Era by either having a nationwide Christmas Day fasting tradition to commemorate each year as an anniversary of Falling Maple Orange altogether, or most choose to follow it and others have other plans of their own in mind.

Now with all that in mind, let's start our future predictions as to what happens next…with the upcoming and 48th President of the United States of America, James David Vance!

I got several burning question deep down inside me:

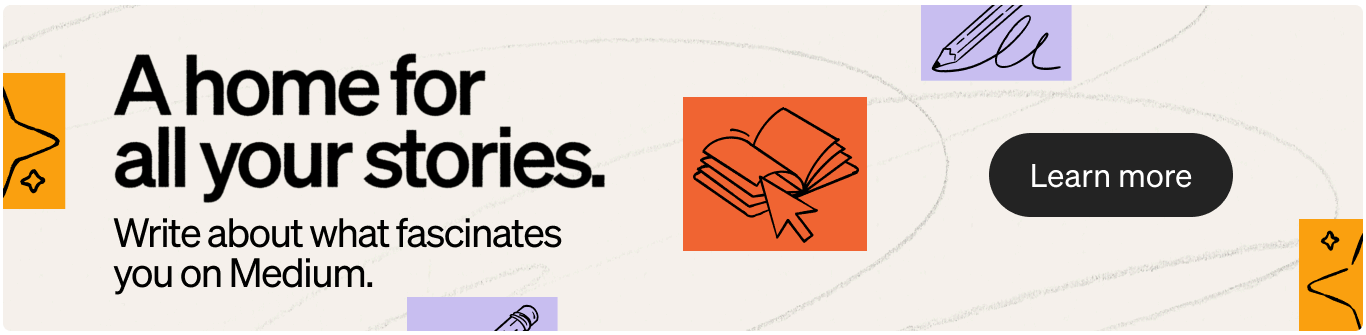
#1. Who is JD Vance going to pick as Vice President of The United States of America?

#2. Is he going to then sign an executive order to make Christmas Day for every year moving forward after 2027, a day of fasting to mourn yearly?

#3. What will he do to try to acquire all the territory of what once was "Canada?"

#4. If he does acquire Post-Canadian land, will he either have previously established provinces as "states" or invent new ones for our country?

#5. Will he dedicate money and resources to build up much beefier and thicker security surrounding himself and his then-to-be new administration?



#6. Will Vance then have approval from Pope Leo IV to make the Christmas Day fasting tradition a common place in the Vatican as well?

I'll go over a few more important topics before I end this article!

Trump Derangement Syndrome And Its International Influence And Effect On The World:

I only have three questions for this one and two for the last thing I cover here:

#1. Will there be an entire study or slew of studies to effectively add TDS this into both DSM-5 and potentially DSM-6?

#2. If so, how long will it be there?

#3. Should it be a national requirement to have a copy of DSM-5 and/or DSM-6 nearby in case anyone starts to go nuts?

And finally, about the aftermath of the potential assassination of Donald Trump!

As I've said, I got only two questions for this final entry of topics:

#1. Will this one tragic event ever be enough to quell and kill off the radical Trump Derangement Syndrome within all of those who are affected by it every single day?

#2. Will presidential assassinations be taken seriously or as more than just a national tragedy; Or (what I'll predict for the sake of it), will they be treated like they're no special anymore (as in it'll keep happening to the next president and just keep going)?

All of these questions are tough to ask as is, but it'll be one hell of a gut punch for the world and us Americans abroad.

I'm Bryan Mullins The Fox, signing out!
